

TUTORINI PERSON SPECIFICATION

Job Title: Workshop Facilitator - Tutorini Tour

Hours: Flexible. Average of 38 hours a week

Contact: January - May (inclusive)

Salary: €150w training wage. €250w touring wage

This is a complex role that will see facilitators working with a number of different schools, teachers, projects, and children. As such, we require people who are passionate about teaching, drama, and Educo. This passion will help you through times where answers may not be easily acquired and days are long. We are looking for facilitators who have experience working independently (you will not be based near an Educo office), have exceptional problem-solving skills, and are able to work well under pressure.

ESSENTIAL

Bachelor's Degree (or equivalent) in a related field e.g. English Language, Education, Drama and Performing Arts OR evidence of extensive experience in English/drama teaching

Experience in planning, creating and delivering lessons/ workshops

TEFL, TESOL, English Language Teaching experience (including Educo camps)

Excellent communication skills

Ability to work autonomously including managing own budgets, expenses, reimbursements and car maintenance

Very good organisational skills

EU passport, permesso di soggiorno or a working holiday visa.

DESIRABLE

TEFL/CELTA qualification

Touring or travelling experience (beyond that of Educo camps and Teatrino)

Experience with Educo methodologies (e.g. Educo Camps, Teatrino)

Additional experience to Educo teaching in another country (TEFL, ESOL etc.)

Creative skills such as music, arts and crafts and performance.

Full drivers licence (we will need at least one strong driver)

Note: The UK is no longer considered an EU passport. We cannot accept applicants from America who do not have an EU passport, permesso di soggiorno, or those without a working holiday visa. You will also be required to obtain an International Child's Protection certificate or Police Check.
